THE APPRENTICE

When some employers were asked what makes a good apprentice, they responded that they seek to hire “someone who wants to learn.”

In the Bible, a good example of an apprentice is Joshua. We remember Joshua for marching around the wall of Jericho. He also had some important responsibilities as a spy (Num. 13:16) and as a warrior (Ex. 17:10). But he was often in the shadow of someone else—Moses. For 40 years, Joshua served as Moses’ assistant, aide, and apprentice (Ex. 24:13).

God takes His own time to prepare us for service. Sometimes that period of waiting is as valuable as learning all the needed strategies and goals. Joshua observed Moses’ faith in God. He learned what it meant to be humble (Num. 12:3), how to take instruction (Ex. 17:10), and how to be a true servant of God (Josh. 1:1; 24:29). Even a display of Moses’ temper (Num. 20:7-12) was an opportunity to watch and learn. By spending time with Moses, Joshua learned things that couldn’t be learned from a book.

Joshua’s own time to lead was coming. And when it came, he was able to trust God’s promise to him: “As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you” (Josh. 1:5).

FROM THE DESK OF DREW

I want to thank each of you for your kind words and prayers on behalf my mom and family. My mom is a very special lady who has served so many and its amazing at this time to see how many are serving her. I thank you and ask that you continue to remember her in your prayers.

Do you like ice cream? Do you like home made ice cream? Are those really questions that anyone should ask? I am going to assume that all of you love ice cream as much as I do. Based on that assumption I know that you will want to be here on Wed. night August 20 as we eat and enjoy some home made ice cream. Let me personally invite you to come, bring your own favorite home made ice cream and share in the sweet fellowship here at Wingate. It promises to be a wonderful night!

Thank you notes posted on the bulletin board from:

Gale Anderson (LIFE Group 1); Melba Cox (LIFE Group 2); Marlene, Jeremy & Sonja Stover; Bill Tice (Wingate & LIFE Group 6)

Real Christians are forgiven, forgiving and for giving.
 Their sins are forgiven by God.
 They themselves forgive those who wrong them.
 And a generous spirit prompts them to give cheerfully to the work of the Lord.

Whitsitt Elementary School

It's that time of year again! When we try to help out our neighborhood school. What Whitsitt Elementary School needs more than supplies this year is the same thing they needed last year, gift cards to Thrift Smart or Wal-Mart for the children to have school uniforms (for those that can't afford them). You can either purchase a gift card to Thrift Smart or Wal-Mart or give money to Mike or Sheila Sullivan; they will purchase gift cards to take to Whitsitt. We appreciate what ever amount you are able to give. The last day to give will be Sunday, August 17.

Old Cell Phones

Shiela Jackson is collecting old cell phones and there accessories (chargers, etc) for the military to be able to call home. WSIX is sponsoring this and are getting phone cards for the soldiers to be able to use the cell phones. Please put each cell phone and its charger in a bag before putting it in the box in the foyer (so we will know which charger goes with each phone). Please see Shiela Jackson if you need more information.
