FROM THE DESK OF DREW

Well, it's finally here. Our annual Friends & Family Day is next Sunday. I know many of you have been inviting your family and friends to join you on this special day. Let me encourage you to continue inviting. Don't stop. You never know what might come from inviting someone to worship. Many have come to know Christ by just an invitation to come to worship. Also, we need to recognize the person who brings the most visitors on this special day. Last year it was a toss up between two or three families. This year you could be the one who brings the most visitors. Please be praying for our special occasion and again continue inviting and inviting. We had 511 present last year and with your help this year we can again have another banner day here at Wingate!

"Life is a book in volumes three,
the past, the present, the yet-to-be;
the past is written and laid away;
the present we're writing day by day;
the last and best of volumes three is locked from sight; God keeps the key."

A True Story

Two well-to-do Christians, a lawyer and a merchant, joined a group that was going around the world. One day in Korea, they saw a field by the side of the road, and in the field a boy pulled a crude plow while an old man held the plow handles and directed it through the rice paddy. The lawyer was amused and took a snapshot of the scene. "That's a curious sight," he said to the missionary who was the interpreter and guide.

"Yes," was the reply. "That is the family of Chi Noui. When the church was built, they were eager to give something, but they had no money; so they sold the only ox they had and gave the money to the church. This spring they are pulling the plow themselves."

The lawyer and the businessman were silent for moments. Then the businessman said, "That must have been a real sacrifice."

"They did not call it that," said the missionary. "They thought it was fortunate they had the ox to sell."

The two tourists had not much to say, but when they reached home, the lawyer took the picture to his preacher and told him of the incident. "I want to double my offering to the church, he said. "And give me some plow work to do. I have never known what sacrifice for the Lord really means. I am ashamed to say that I have never given anything to Him that really cost me anything." (true story from Bulletin Digest)
