

I Don't Like My Options

2 Kings 5:1-17

Introduction

- Think about two words: options and decisions. One gives rise to the other. Options are diverse, decisions are difficult. An option only has power when it becomes a decision.
- In 2 Kings, chapter 5, we read about three people who did not like their options, but they were able to make the absolute best of a bad situation and get victory over their circumstances, and joy in the process, by learning three things to do when you don't like your options.

Discussion

◇ Do What God Desires

- 2 Kings 5:1-3

◇ Do What God Deserves

- 2 Kings 5:8

◇ Do What God Demands

- 2 Kings 5-6

Conclusion

When you don't like your options, you do what God desires, you do what God deserves, you do what God demands, and you will get victory every time
