

God's Will For You

Romans 12:1-2

Introduction

I don't guess any preacher has ever been asked a question more than this one: "How can I know the will of God for my life?" Well, let me begin by giving you a piece of great news - God wants you to know His will. God doesn't play cat-and-mouse, hide-and-seek, or lets you try to guess what's behind door number three.

Today I am not going to deal so much with the "God part" of His will, but your part. If you want God's will to find you, you must...

Discussion

Surrender Your Life to His Will

- Romans 12:1

Seek His Will for Your Life

- Romans 12:2

See His Will in Your Life

- Romans 12:2

Conclusion

Right now you are moving along that hyphen between your birth and your death, and the key question is very simple. Does that hyphen represent the will of God or not? Jesus said He came to earth to do one thing - His Father's will, and so should we. Because when you do the will of God you will abide forever.
