

Sad Confessions from the Rock Team

Judges 15:9-12

Introduction

- If a person's heart is full of Jesus, he or she will talk about Jesus. If a person's heart is full of the world, they will always be talking about the things of the world. If a person's heart is full of anger, hate, and revenge, they will speak negatively of others. If we will listen to a person talk, we will learn what is important to them. We will learn what they believe and how they feel.
- As we continue looking at the life of Samson I want us to look at three statements that were made by those involved in the scene before us. I want to call these statements confessions because in making the statements they are making us aware of where they are spiritually.

Discussion

◇ The Confession of a Bound Life

- Judges 15:10-11

◇ The Confession of a Bitter Spirit

- Judges 15:11

◇ The Confession of a Barren Soul

- Judges 15:12

Conclusion

- There is so much that God wants to do for His people. To reject His plans and purposes for our life reveals much about the condition of our hearts. It reveals how utterly spiritually barren our soul is. It says that the spiritual has no place in our life. It declares that we have no room for God.
