

The Life Worth Living

Philippians 4:4-7

Introduction

- Many people ask is life really worth living? More and more people are beginning to answer that question with a resounding no.
- There are more suicides in American than there are murders. Psychiatrists tell us that there are at least 12 million people in American who are in such deep depression they have lost all desire to live.
- Paul was living life and enjoying it. As you read these words you can feel the pulse beat of his heart. He was enthused. He was effervescent, bubbling over with the joy of Jesus.
